Dear PhD Students,

I warmly invite you to participate in the Jagiellonian University Coimbra Group 3-Minute Thesis Competition®.

Its aim is to popularise science.

The Competition is about presenting in English your doctoral research project in a three-minute oral presentation using one static slide only and to the audience who are non-specialists in your disciplines.

The Jagiellonian University, a member of the international Coimbra Group network, is now organizing the fourth edition of this Competition. For the first three winners, the University offers attractive prizes including research stays at the universities affiliated with the Coimbra Group. The first-place winner will represent the Jagiellonian at the 3 MT Grand Final during Coimbra Group General Assembly, which will be held in Cologne in June 2023.

The CG-3MT- Jagiellonian University Competition has two stages:

Stage I: Jagiellonian University Jury selects 10 Speakers

Stage II: the Jury selects three winners out of the 10 Speakers

Regulations for the competitions organized at universities around the world under the common name 3 Minute Thesis (3MT®) were first developed at the University of Queensland, Australia in 2008.

The 2023 regulations and the application form are there for you at:
